Main Idea

The message, lesson, or moral of a story.

What the story is mostly about.

The boys never expected to get caught stealing the bag of chips, but the security camera caught their theft.

When Julia fell off the monkey bars and broke her arm, she was terrified to go to the emergency room.

It was a rainy day, and mom had to get creative to keep the kids from getting too bored.

Maria loved to play football with the guys, but she also loved dressing up in fancy clothes to go to parties.

Even though it had been a terrible day, Terrence came home in a pleasant mood, hoping to have a good night.

She knew she would have to work hard, but Jana had always wanted to win the spelling bee.

Never give up on something that is important to you.

It doesn't matter what type of clothes you wear or the kind of music you listen to. What matters most is who you are inside.

Even if someone has something else that you want, you should still be thankful for what you have.

It is important to always put family first.

No matter the circumstances, a true friend will always be there for you.

When you aren't sure of a solution, use creativity and your imagination to solve the problem.
