

Inspiration for Instruction Presenter's Agreement

Thank you for your willingness to share your professional knowledge with Oklahoma educators! The mission of Inspiration for Instruction is to provide Oklahoma educators with high-quality, relevant professional development at no cost to schools or teachers.

We are not associated with any district, company, political group, or program.
We are simply educational leaders dedicated to supporting Oklahoma's teachers.

By agreeing to present at our conference, you agree to support the organization's goals and beliefs. Please ensure that your presentation complies with these guidelines:

- Your presentation provides resources and/or strategies that educators will be able to utilize in schools/classrooms to boost student achievement upon return to their classroom.
- To the best of your knowledge, your presentation does not violate any proprietary or personal rights of others (including any copyright, trademark and privacy rights), is factually accurate, and contains nothing defamatory or otherwise unlawful. You have obtained all necessary permissions or licenses from any individuals or organizations whose material is included or used in your presentation.
- You grant Inspiration for Instruction permission to use your name, likeness, photograph and school/organization affiliation in connection with the use and promotion of the program. You confirm that you are authorized to represent your school/organization, if applicable.
- If you grant Inspiration for Instruction permission to publish your content, your content will be published on our website. Presenter credit will be included on the website.
- The primary purpose of your session is to provide educators with instructional strategies. The purpose of the session is not promotional marketing or selling of any product or service. You agree to limit company logos, name, or similar identifications to the first and last slides of your presentation.
- You agree to not engage in any type of disparaging discussion of individuals, organizations, political parties, school, district, or state/national laws.
- You ensure that the privacy of your students, their parents, and your coworkers, is not compromised through any part of your presentation.
- You understand that you are responsible for all travel arrangements and expenses that you incur and that you will not receive any compensation for this presentation.
- You agree to notify us immediately if an emergency prevents you from presenting.

We appreciate your professionalism and dedication to helping Oklahoma's educators help kids!
